HAROLD STAKES TO HELIOS

J. N. CAMDEN'S STAR SHOOT-HINDOO ROSE COLT AGAIN BEATS HAWTHORN.

Latter Had Lead of Five Lengths in Early Running and Helios Wins on His Merits-One Race Declared Off and Another Substituted.

Declared Off and Another Substituted.

Cincinnati. O., June 15.—The Harold Stakes, carrying a net value of $2,050 to the winner, was won this afternoon by J. N. Camden's Helios, from a good band of juveniles that included Hawthorn and Yankee Notions. Helios' performance left no room for doubt as to his superiority over Hawthorn, for the latter, at one part of the five-furlougs journey was fully five lengths in advance of Helios. The Camden representative closed the intervening gap in resolute fashion and, drawing level with Hawthorn in the last sixteenth, had little difficulty in drawing away to win by a comfortable margin. Hawthorn easily retained second place. Originally eleven were ramed to go in the race, but the adverse track conditions accounted for the withdrawal of Solar Star, Rosturtium. Pericles, Nobby and Foundation. Despite Hawthorn's decisive defeat in a former start by Helios, he ruled favorite, with the Camden representative next in demand. The race was always between the first three. Hawthorn obtained a slight advantage at the start that enabled him to sprint into a long lead. The only excuse that his admirers could possibly advance for his defeat today was that he still is not in good form.

The Harold Stakes was first run in 1883. Its tabled history since 1900 is given below: Year. Winner. Wt. Jockey. Val. James Farnum, one of the principal stockholders in the Charleston track, was among today's visitors. He spoke encouragingly of the outlook for racing in South Carolina next winter. The coming elections in August will be a determining factor.

The three-horse combination, consisting of Ella Bryson, High Private and Manager Mack, paid $64.60 for $2.

John Hachmeister will go to Lexington next Monday to be in attendance at the meeting of the Kenneky State Racing Commission.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

T. W. (Chicago) O'Brien is at Latonia, where Pluvious, the only horse he owns, is being handled by J. A. Strode.

Frederick L., which J. C. Milam has just sold b H. C. Hallenbeck for the reported price of $5,000, cought $300 as a yearling.

Good progress is being made with the work at Connaught Park, but the book of conditions for the proposed September meeting has not yet been issued. Free Lance has no stake engagements after the close of the Latonia meeting and, with the rest of George J. Long's horses, will go back to Louisville to rest until fall.

The Prix des Lions of 6,000 francs, distance 2,100 meters, run at Chantilly, in France, Thursday, was won by M. Anmont's Galion d'Or. M. Vagliano's Phrynis was second and W. K. Vanderbilt's Salami was third. Six horses ran. Jockey Stern rode the winner, Reiff the second horse, and O'Neill was

A man giving the name of Frank Flood was arrested last year in the neighborhood of the Fort Eric course, on a charge of wiring information to poolrooms and bandbooks. He was committed for trial, but when the case was called at Welland, Ont., a few days ago, he did not appear and his bail of $500 was ordered forfeited.

ANSWERS TO QUERIES.

S. N., Cleveland, O. Presumably the same affair was dealt with in a reply to E. A. P., Canton, O., in Daily Raceing Form of June 11, in which, on his statement of the matter, the opinion was expressed that the wager stood. If, however, you expressly stated your bet was not to go if there was an added starter, it would be a different case and the bet would become a draw as soon as it was known there was an added starter. It all hinges on whether there was an unqualified stipulation to the effect that it was no bet if there was an added starter.

FROGLEGS IS A DERBY WINNER.

for Three-year-olds—Opening a Huge Success.

Hamilton, Ont., June 15.—The Hamilton Jockey Club had an auspicious opening of its remodeled course this afternoon. Great changes had been made in the plant since last season and a record-breaking crowd came over from Toronto to witness the racing and incidentally look over the plant. Unfortunately for the club, a perfect deluge of rain came at about two o'clock and kept many at home. Despite this, the attendance was by far the largest that ever witnessed a race in this city. The races were run over a sloppy track with a good bottom. A splendid program of seven races was provided, with the sixth running of the Hamilton Derby as the principal feature. The inaugural dash, in which some of the best sprinters in the country went to the post, and a two-year-old race divided interest with the Derby. Knights Differ beat Ocean Bound a length in the former, while August Belimont's Rockview proved an easy winner in the latter. There were six starters in the Derby, Cliff Stream and Light O' M' Life being withdrawn. Froglegs was an odds-on favorite and was ridden by Butwell. He proved an easy winner, galloping home with a six-lengths lead over Green B. Morris' Cesarion filly. Jenny Geddes. In the early running Colonel Hollowy dashed to the front, with Froglegs in close pursuit. They ran in this order for five furlougs, when Butwell released Froglegs from restraint and he quickly assumed command and in the last three furlongs drew away without much effort. Flamma, after looming up dangerous on the far turn managed to finish a tiring third. The race carried a net value of $2.530 to the winner.

The Hamilton Derby was instituted in 1907. Its biref history is as follows:

The Belmont youngster was ridden by McTaggart, who is accounted on of the best two-year-old riders in the country. McTaggart, with his usual alertness at the post, left the barrier with a rush and went the first quarter in .23½ and the half in .47%. Rock View came down the homestretch with his cars pricking and won with something to spare by three lengths from the Schorr crack, Brawny. The five furlongs were run in 1.30%, within three-fifths of a second of the track, the performance was certainly an impressive one, and stamped Rock View as the best youngster shown on the eastern circuit this season.

Fifty layers were in line in the immense betting enclosure and speculation was keen all afternoon. The following is a list of those in line: R. A. Kennedy, H. Hartley, Ed. Colell, Roy offurt, C. B. Walters, Charles Walters, Peter McGrath, Henry Hanf, Claud M. Kyle, Frank Shannon, Rod McMahon, G. P. Hickey, C. Wilson, Al Hanf, M. C. Lewis, M. Wolfgang, M. Harris, I. Howard, Sol Lichtenstein, George Cafferata, T. J. Shaw, T. Monohan, E. J. Callahan, George Howard, S. Asherman, D. Higgins, John Lewis, Sam Frank, G. Fitca, William Reverley, Max Marks, Sidney Cohen, I. Hammerslag, Sol Alberts, George Zeller and J. J. Spillane. There were also three fielders.

The Méddler stallion Detective, winner of the Hamilton Derby of 1909, broke down yesterday and will be retired by Charles Boyle to his farm at Woodstock, Ont., where he will go into the stud.

IMPORTANT DECISION IN BRITISH COLUMBIA. Chief Justice Decides That Pari-Mutuel Wagering

Does Not Violate Criminal Code.

Spokane, Wash., June 15.—The weather was bad and the smallest Saturday crowd of the meeting was on hand to see the best card of the season decided. There was plenty of contention in every race. The Spokane Speed Handicap at five furlongs, was the feature. Moller and Stout Heart, coupled as the H. McDaniel-G. C. Bennett entry, ruled favorite and they were both unfortunate. Stout Heart got the worst of the start and was rushed up too rapidly in the first part. Moller was caught in a jam early and his chances were thereby destroyed. The winner, Al Bloch, is a slashing youngster. He easily shook Vested Rights off in the stretch.

Favorites fared well, three scoring. Daddy Gip was the surprise at the liberal olds of 15 to 1.

Judge Robert Leighton received a telegram from W. J. Taylor, King's counsel. Victoria, B. C., stating that Lord Chief Justice Hunter of British Coumbia has decided that the parl-mutuel or total isator system of wagering on horse racing is not a breach of the criminal code and consequently that race meetings could be given of unlimited duration. This rulling has a direct bearing upon the contemplated fifty-five days' meeting at Victoria Country Club will give a fifteen days' meeting at Victoria following the close of racing at Vancouver, in September.

Republican and Jawbone will not be starters in the Coeur d'Alene Derby. There has been considerable dispute as to their eligibility because of the ruling that was made against them at Charleston, C. W. Pelham has decided to withdraw them rather than to conflict with the rules of the Jockey Club.

T. C. McDOWELL'S YOUNG THOROUGHBREDS

Lexington, Ky., June 15.—Thomas C. McDowell, one of the most popular of American turfmen and likewise one of this country's truest sportsmen, has at Ashland, the historic homestead of his maternal grandsire, Henry Clay, the great commoner, in the suburbs of Lexington, twenty royally-bred young thoroughbred horses. Ten are yearlings and ten are sucklings, and as a collection of equine beauties of the thoroughbred types they would quickly fill the eye of any connoisseur.

suckings, and as a collection of equine beauties of the thoroughbred types they would quickly fill the eye of any connoisseur.

The first mentioned of both yearlings and sucklings must be the produce of that good stake winner and grand matron. Bracegirdle (dam of Woodlake, winner of the 1903 Latonia Derby, The Rival, Belle of Ashland. Lady Anne, Prince Hohenlohe and The Manager, all by different sires and all good winners, by Fonso—Peg Woffington (a stake winner and dam of the stake winners David Garrick, Intruder, etc., and half-sister to Modesty, the only filly winner of the American Derby), by Longfellow, out of Ballet, a distinguished member of a family prollife in stayers.

Bracegirdle's yearling is a bay colt by Ben Brush and he is one of the best foals of 1911 in the blug crass region. His owner and likewise Courtney Matthews, the colored groom who has been a long time at Ashland, regard him as probably the best or well, in and of his dam's produce. He is a cracking good individual. He is long-bodied, like The Manager, but is ternal a the pronounced by all at the farm as a much better racing prospect than was The Manager—winner of cond in the Latonia Derby—at the same age. He can be seen that the same age is his color, bay with black points, from his sire, and in many other respects is much like that good winger which won both the Kentucky Derby and the Latonia Derby in 1896, to say nothing of numerous five the stakes—his turf earnings totalling $65,217 for twenty-five first, five seconds, and five thirds out of forty starts.

The yearlings are as follows:
Bay colt, by Ben Brush—Bracegirdle (dam of Woodlake, The Rival, Belle of Ashland, Lady Anna, Prince Hobenlohe and The Manager), by Longfellow. Chestnut colt, by Hastings—Monarka.

Brush blue Brown colt, by Saim—Countess irma. Chestnut colt, by Allan-a-Dale—Lucy Lockett (dam of Kitty Fisher), by Order.

The Lady Anne filly and the Palle of Ashler

The Lady Anne filly and the Belle of Ashland filly are striking individuals. The son of Countess Irma is probably the best of the three coits.

The yearlings will be taken up during the latter part of July or the first of August to be broken at Ashland and will later be removed to the Kentucky Association course for their trials. The sucklings will be weaned about September 15.

Time. 24%, 48%, 1:16%, 1:45%. Track sloppy. Winner—Ch. g, by Goldcrest—Rose Ban (trained by W. A. Burttschell). Went to post at 5:29. At post 1 minute. Start good and slow. Won driving; second and third the same. QIESTION MARK began slowly, but worked his way up steadily on the outside and, after having closed a big gap, finished fast and outgamed CLIFTONIAN in a hard drive. The latter, running in greatly improved form, showed much speed all the way and, taking the lead in the stretch, only gave way in the last stride. FRED MULHOLLAND tired in the last sixteenth after moving up into second place after entering the homestretch. Having had great success of winning a large amount of money during the last two years by using a betting system which is the result of twenty years' of experience at racing, I am going to send to every bettor complete copy for track, poolroom and handbook betting. I am doing this favor, so that every bettor may learn the way. I select my daily bets with success. I will mail the copy in a plain sealed envelope. Just enclose in your letter a silver dime to cover expense of printing and mailing. I will also send full particulars of a special that goes first part of July.

I have exclusive information on two horses starting this week at LATONIA. Full details have been in my possession for some time past. Notice has just come to hand that this is the week that the big killings will be pulled off. All who read this have the opportunity to be declared in on them for the winnings of a $2 straight bet. Send correct name and address where telegrams will reach you in time for these two big coups.

HERMITAGE SYSTEM SAVES AND MAKES YOU MONEY. This system placed Hawthorn third, just where he ran. Figured Briar Path and Helios both to beat him and they did. Yet papers say interference beat him. The greatest advantage of this system is in placing the proper value on each horse. Try it two weeks and if it is not just what we represent, your subscription money will be returned. Has not failed in 25 years. Keeps you from overrating top-heavy favorites, also gives long-priced winners. Figures will not lie if made correctly.
